Students may begin taking dual credit courses with Austin Community College during the summer after 9th grad year. (Tuition is free for up to six credit hours)

Students are encouraged to take LOTE Courses through AP Level IV because many colleges will provide up to 12 credit hours with a passing grade and, possibly, up to 15 credit hours with a 4.0 grade average. *

- Core curriculum courses may be taken in middle school, via credit by exam or dual credit. Courses required for graduation may not be taken via dual credit, distance education, or through any other external provider during the second semester of senior year without express written permission from the principal before the school year begins.
