

We have a great week planned at BJH. We will be celebrating Red Ribbon Week this week. This is a campaign developed to bring drug awareness and for our students to pledge against drug usage. Our Student Council has many activities planned for this week. Please take time at some point this week to discuss this with your children. It will be a fun week but also a very informative week as well.

Activities for this week:

Monday: Volleyball- Brock @ Boyd (4:00)

Tuesday: 3 Week Progress Reports go home

Thursday: Football- Argyle Liberty Christian @ Brock (4:30, 5:30)

Red Ribbon Week

Monday, October 28

Theme Day: “Team Up Against Drugs” – Sports Day

Announcement: History of Red Ribbon Week

Sign a Contract at lunch

Launch the Door Decorating Contest Homeroom Class

Individual Student Contest: Poetry/Cheer Competition against Drugs $10 itune gift card awarded to winner!

Tuesday, October 29

Theme Day: “Put Drugs to Rest & Dream of a Drug Free World” PJ Day

Announcement: Statistics

Individual Student Contest: Candy Jar Guess – Don’t be another Statistic! Stand Up and be heard! Say No (Winner is awarded the candy jar)

Wednesday, October 30

Theme Day: “Peace Out Drugs” – Hippie Day

Individual Student Contest: Anti Drug/Alcohol/Tobacco Poster Contest (Winner awarded a $10 itune gift card)

Announcements: How to get Help

Thursday, October 31

Theme Day: “Two Times the Power against Drugs” Twin Day

Announcements: Encouragement to Stay Involved

Pack the Stands Football Game/Volleyball Game: Studies show families that stay involved with their children are less likely to have problems with drugs and alcohol. So, get your family together and pack the stands to cheer on the Eagles!

Video at Lunch

Winner of the Class Door Decorating Contest Announced! (Class Party Awarded)

Friday, November 1,

Theme Day: “Be Bright; Say NO to Drugs” – Neon Day

Announcements: Stand Up and take the Pledge to be Drug Free!

Individual student contest winners announced for Poster Contest & Cheer/Poetry

Have a great week!!!