Cowboy PRIDE Never Dies

August 2017

The purpose of the Extracurricular Code of Conduct is to provide an unambiguous understanding of the standards established to manage student conduct in all functions associated with D'Hanis ISD. Every student, sponsor, coach and administrator is charged with carrying out the responsibility of representing D'Hanis ISD with conduct becoming of an esteemed affiliate of D'Hanis ISD at all times. The policies contained in this code will give support to the expectations established to guide all students in fulfilling their maximum potential.

As an extension of the D'Hanis ISD curricular program, all extracurricular programs are essential parts of providing opportunities for growth through the development of leadership skills. All campus sponsored extracurricular programs include those not sanctioned by the University Interscholastic League. Each sponsored program will be held to the standards established in this Code. As D'Hanis ISD begins a second "Century of Excellence" our efforts focus on the prevalent sense of "Cowboy Pride" that has governed our success.

In accordance with state law, the Code will be posted at each school campus or will be available for review at the office of the campus principal or athletic director. Additionally, the Code will be posted on the district website. Parents will be notified of any conduct violation that may result in the administration of consequences set forth in this Code.

Because the Extracurricular Code of Conduct is acknowledged by the DISD's Board of Trustees, it has the force of policy; therefore, in case of conflict between the Code and the student handbook, the Code will prevail.

Principal

Todd Craft,
Athletic Director

I. Extracurricular Activities: General Provisions

What is an Extracurricular Activity?

- Any University Interscholastic League (UIL), School District, or campus-sponsored or related public performances, events, contests, demonstrations, displays, club activities, athletics, whether on- or off-campus;
- Any elected offices and honors (such as student council and homecoming queen);
- All co-curricular activities, which are those held in conjunction with a credit-bearing class, but that may take place outside of school and outside of the school day (such as band and choir);
- All national organizations (such as National Honor Society or Future Farmers of America); and
- Any activity held in conjunction with another activity that is considered to be an extracurricular activity (such as a meeting, practice, or fundraiser)

Why are Extracurricular Activities Important?

- They promote self-discipline, responsibility, leadership, teamwork, self-confidence, commitment, and student wellness.
- They enhance and enrich curricular educational offerings.
- They offer participants the opportunity to be leaders and role models on campus and in the community.
- They enable participants to represent the School District in a positive manner.

II. Jurisdiction

Who is Subject to the Extracurricular Code of Conduct?

Any student who participates in one or more extracurricular activities is subject to the D'Hanis ISD Extracurricular Code of Conduct (ECC). A student is subject to the ECC from the time he/she is selected for, elected to, or otherwise joins an extracurricular activity and continues to be subject to the ECC from that point forward unless or until the student no longer participates in extracurricular activities.

When Does the Extracurricular Code of Conduct Apply?

The privilege of representing the School District carries with it a greater responsibility to conduct oneself with respect and dignity, and to serve as a role model for all students. Consequently, extracurricular activity participants are expected to comply with the ECC at all times, regardless of location. This includes both on and off-campus conduct as well as evenings, weekends, holidays, and summer vacation.

III. Conduct Expectations

What is Expected of Extracurricular Activity Participants?

Participants in extracurricular activities are representatives of D'Hanis Independent School District, and must conduct themselves in a manner that reflects positively on the School District at all times. Specifically, they must:

- Maintain an average of 70% or better in all academic courses, except as provided in District policy FM (Legal);
- Be punctual and prepared for all games, practices, meetings, performances, camps, and/or other scheduled events related to an extracurricular activity;
- Treat all school property with respect and ensure that school property is returned upon request and in good condition (excluding reasonable wear and tear);
- Abide by the district's dress and grooming standards for students as well as any dress and grooming standards applicable to the specific extracurricular activity;
- Comply with UIL rules, including those related to random steroid testing, if applicable;
- Be courteous and respectful toward all fellow participants, school faculty and staff members, spectators, parents, and officials, whether from D'Hanis ISD or from any other school district;
- Provide 24 hours advance notice to the coach or sponsor of an activity if they are unable to attend a game, practice, meeting, performance, and/or other scheduled event related to the extracurricular activity;
- Comply with all rules and guidelines in the ECC and those established for a specific extracurricular activity in which the student participates; and,

- Comply with and adhere to the behavioral standards identified in the District’s Student Code of Conduct.

IV. Consequences

Definitions

Definition: "sponsor" the district employee responsible for the direct supervision for the program in question and its participants.

Definition: "contest" one officially scheduled interscholastic competition.

Definition: "weeks" means school weeks, but also includes any non-school weeks in which an extracurricular competition or event occurs, such as camps during the summer or on school holidays.

Definition: "suspension" means that the student will not be permitted to participate in any competition, contest, scrimmage, performance, or election associated with an extracurricular activity. The student may continue to participate in practices.

Note: An extracurricular activity participant starts each school year with a clean slate, unless he or she had participation in extracurricular activities revoked during the previous school year, in which case that revocation continues from year to year. In addition, any consequences that were assessed during the prior school year for which the student owes additional suspension or behavior contract time must still be completed. For example, a student who was suspended from participation for 4 school weeks during the last week of school may have an additional 3 weeks of suspension to complete beginning with the next school year.

V. Procedures

Who Determines that a Violation of the ECC has Occurred?

The activity sponsor or coach will determine whether a violation of the ECC has occurred and will assess the appropriate consequence.

How will Consequences be Assessed for Different Violations of the ECC?

Consequences for violating the District ECC are assessed based on the severity of the violation and the commission of prior ECC violations.

Is a Student Entitled to Participate in Extracurricular Activities?

No. Participation in extracurricular activities is a privilege, not a right. As such, a student's participation may be revoked at the District's discretion.

How Will Parents be Notified that a Violation of the ECC has Occurred?

Parents will be notified of all violations that result in suspension from participation in extracurricular activities. The activity sponsor or coach will contact the student and the parent via telephone or face-to-face conference within 3 school days from the time the activity sponsor or coach learns of such a violation. At this time, the activity sponsor or coach will inform the parent and student that a violation of the ECC has occurred, discuss with them the applicable consequences, and give the student an opportunity to respond to the allegations.

What if a Parent Does Not Agree with the Decision?

All appeals will be addressed through the District's complaint process, contained in policies FNG (Legal) and (Local). A decision of the D'Hanis ISD Board of Trustees regarding an extracurricular activity complaint is final and is not appealable.
