

MY ANGER BUTTONS

Fill in each button with something that makes you angry.
These are the things or situations that "push your buttons."

The worksheet features nine empty circles arranged in a 3x3 grid. Each circle is designed to look like a button, with a thick, light gray outer ring and a thin black inner ring. The circles are intended for a child to write down things that make them angry.