Lady Rebels Basketball

The girls went into playoffs as district champs. Their first playoff game was Area against Cayuga. They won the game with a score of 48-32, and the crowd was wild! The next game was Quarter Finals against the Avery Bulldogs at the Paris High School. The Lady Rebels upset the Avery Bulldogs by beating them 52-35. This gave the Lady Rebels the opportunity to travel to Tyler for the weekend to play the Love Lady Lions in the Regional Semi-Finals. The Lady Rebels won with a score of 58-40. Martin's Mill was able to beat them out, but not without a hard fight from the mighty Lady Rebels. We are so proud of you ladies!

100th Day of School

The 100th day of school was celebrated on Thursday, February 2. Teachers and students could dress up as if they were from 100 years ago, wear 100 items, or just wear pajamas. Kelsea Capehart made a shirt with 100 signatures of students and teachers. Mrs. Mahoney wore clothes from 100 years ago. Pretty much everyone else wore their pajamas to school to celebrate. Teachers and students enjoyed the 100th day of school assignments in each classroom.

Amanda Mauppin

The fight is finally over and Amanda has won. On February 10, 2012, she passed away in her home surrounded by family. Her cancer is finally gone and she is sharing her fashion in Heaven with all the angels. She was buried at the Lamasco Cemetery. A memorial service was held on February 16 at First Baptist Church in Bonham, Texas. Brother Craig officiated the event. At the memorial, Amanda's life was celebrated; Mr. Shaw told heart-warming stories and Kassie Shaw and Bro. Craig sang a song that Amanda had written. Amanda was so wonderful and truly cared about others. When she was homebound, she always wanted to know what was up with her friends at school and hoped they understood. Although she is not here with us anymore, she is still in thousands of hearts that she has touched. For all of us who knew little Miss Amanda, we know she is unforgettable. Though life may give you struggles, remember to "Live life the Amanda Mauppin way!!!"

Senior Spotlights!

Jake Nichols is a 17 year old Senior at Sam Rayburn High School. While his college choice is unknown at the moment, he does know that he wants to go to be a sports journalist. Out of school Jake says he spends most of his time just hanging out with friends and watching football-he's a New York Jets fan. His best friends are Kellen Murphy and Jake Davis, and his most embarrassing moment was when he got his tongue stuck to the door of one of the big freezers at Wal-Mart.

Stefanie Hutchings is a Senior here at Sam Rayburn High School. Her favorite class is Theatre because it is fun. She likes to Trick Hoop, read, and write in her free time. She wants to go back to Italy for vacation. She has always had a love for Mustangs. Her favorite song is "Good Riddance," by Green Day. She loves all animal, but she would have to say her favorite is the Panda Bear. Stefanie's most embarrassing was when she fell off the stage at Centennial and dropped 5 feet.

Valentine's Day

On Valentine's Day, the BETA Club sold balloons, candies, and little stuffed animals for people who wanted to get their sweetheart something. The school was covered with balloons, flowers, and candy! The students and faculty experienced a sugar overload!
