Silent Auction Procedure

1. The Silent Auction will begin at 6:00 pm, and will close 30 minutes after the Live Auction ends.
2. Each increase in bid must equal or exceed the minimum bid increment amount stated on the bid sheet. Non-compliant bids may be disqualified.
3. Each new bid must be entered on the next available line on the bid sheet and accompanied by the bidder's number.
4. All sales are final. Items are not redeemable for cash. No exchanges, alterations, or refunds are permitted.
5. Time for check-out will be announced. Payment in full is required. Preferred payment is by check. All major credit cards will be accepted.
6. Following payment, items may be claimed by showing a "Paid" receipt to the volunteers at the Silent Auction check out tables.
7. Reservations for the use of homes, trips, and parties must be arranged at dates and times mutually convenient to the donors and buyers. Purchasers are responsible for noting blackout dates and for making arrangements before the expiration dates.
8. St. Stephen's offers no warranties, express or implied, in connection with any auction item. Any tax benefit or liability is the responsibility of the buyer(s).

Live Auction Procedure

Renee Sample & Jay Newman, Auctioneers

1. Live Auction will begin at 8:15 and continue without interruption until all of the items are sold.
2. Use the paddle in your welcome tote with your bidder number as your bid flag. Spotters will be positioned throughout the audience to help identify your bid.
3. Syndication is an excellent way to join together and share many of the larger items. This is strongly encouraged. The bidder representing the syndicate is responsible for the payment of any successful bid.
4. Each item will be sold to the highest bidder. Following the sale of each item, the successful bidder will be asked to confirm the sale. Payment in full is required. Preferred payment is by check. All major credit cards will be accepted.
5. All sales are final. Prizes are not redeemable for cash. No exchanges, alterations or refunds are permitted.
6. The Auctioneers have the final say and will settle all disputes. The Auctioneers may reopen bidding in the event of a default or tie.
7. Reservations for the use of homes, trips and parties must be arranged at dates and times mutually convenient to the donors and buyers. Purchasers are responsible for noting black-out dates and for making arrangements before the expiration dates.
8. St. Stephen's offers no warranties, express or implied, in connection with any auction item. Any tax benefit or liability is the responsibility of the buyer(s).

St. Stephen's Episcopal School.

By supporting Extravaganza, the School's most significant fundraising event of the year, you make a meaningful difference in the educational foundation of current and future students.

If you would like to take home a vase of flowers or a student hand-painted Texas ceramic from your table, please let the cashiers know to add an additional minimum $5 donation per item to your auction close-out total.

For Silhouette order questions, email Laura Pierce at:
rancherlaura@gmail.com

To view and order photos from tonight's event, please visit the School's website at www.ststeveschool.org after Friday, May 3, and click on the Clear Image Photography icon.

Mission Statement

The Mission of
St. Stephen's Episcopal School is to develop each student to his or her full potential,
academically, spiritually,
morally, and physically.

Through educational experiences in a Christian community, each student will grow in grace and become a responsible and ethical leader.
