

UNIT 7.11-7.15 OVERVIEW

 The Itsy Bitsy Spider Genre: Rhyming Fiction		 The Tortoise and the Hare By: Aesop Genre: Fable
/oi/ oi and _oy		Word Wall Words boy	point	old
enjoy	annoy	Skills
appoint	voice	Cause and Effect join	spoil	Sequence voyage	loyal	Phonics
Grammar/Mechanics		/r/ spelled wr
Singular Possessive Pronouns		/f/ spelled ph
Writing		Penmanship
Personal Narrative		E and F
Core Decodables
Roy and Royal	Little Wren's Surprise
The Phantom Frog	A Hike

UNIT 7.11-7.15 VOCABULARY

Selection Vocabulary
dried	to have made not wet silky	soft and smooth mad	wild and excited; quick pail	a bucket
Academic Vocabulary
spider	a small animal with eight legs that usually spins a web to catch food dew	moisture from the air that forms drops on the grass hare	a kind of rabbit that has long ears and strong legs and feet pace	the speed of walking or running waterspout	a pipe that catches roof water washed	to carry away by flowing water Expanding Vocabulary
judge	a person who decides the winner in a contest steady	going at an even rate

SLOW
and steady

