

UNIT 7 6-10 OVERVIEW

The Little Engine That Could by Watty Piper Genre: Fiction		Riddles By Eloise Greenfield Genre: Poem
/aw/ au_ and aw		Word Wall Words
draw	auto	into	before
applaud	saw	yellow
lawn	pause	Skills
straw	awful	Making Inferences
fault	because	Grammar/Mechanics
Reading Strategies		Singular &amp; Plural Nouns
Asking Questions		Writing
Visualizing		Make-Believe Story
Study Skills		Penmanship
Using the Library		A and N
Core Decodables
Paul's Sauce		Mr. Daw Thought
At Dawn

UNIT 7.6-7.10 VOCABULARY

Selection Vocabulary
riddles	A question or problem that is hard to solve
tracks	long metal pieces where the wheels of a train move
shiny	bright and sparkling
fine	Very nice
dining car	A room on a train where meals are served and eaten
yards	a place for railroad cars
Academic Vocabulary
mountain	a very large hill
engine	a machine that pulls a railroad train
Expanding Vocabulary
logs	a piece of a tree trunk
puffed	breathed quickly

