Make Music this Summer! 🎵

All Rappahannock County youth going into grades 5-12, including homeschool students and Rappahannock County residents attending schools outside the RCPS system are welcome to be a part of this amazing two-week program.

🎵 Love to sing? Want to do more this summer? Join us!

🎵 Not sure if you'll like it but want to try it out? Join us!

🎵 Spend time this summer with your friends and meet new friends while learning more about music from some great teachers who love teaching music!

🎵 Learn using rhythm songs with xylophones, drums and pianos.

🎵 $50 for the two-week session. Scholarships are available upon request.

Connect. Sing. Learn.

MEET OUR DIRECTORS

The Summer Chorus will again be led this year by Keith Hudspeth and Kelsey Rose, who look forward to teaching and leading Rappahannock County youth in song ...and having fun doing it!

Keith Hudspeth chairs the Arts Department at Georgetown Day School and is a noted teacher and chorus director in the DC area. Keith holds degrees in voice from UNC-Charlotte and Rice University.

Kelsey Rose holds degrees in Sacred Music and Christian Education from Princeton Theological Seminary and also holds baccalaureate degrees with honors in Music Education and Music Theory from Westminster Choir College. She recently completed a post-graduate study in choral music at Oxford University.
