

A Washburn Graduate is expected to be

A Responsible Learner

- Sets priorities & achievable goals
- Assesses progress, evaluates understanding, seeks feedback, and makes adjustments if needed
- Assumes responsibility for learning
- Takes pride in & produces quality work

Socially Responsible Person

- Demonstrates respect for self, surroundings, and the diversity of others
- Accepts responsibility for own actions
- Functions as a productive member of society

An Effective Communicator

- Receives information through active listening, observing, & reading
- Develops messages for various audiences & for different purposes through multiple formats, including technology

A Healthy Person

- Develops physical wellness
- Develops social/emotional wellness

A Cooperative Individual

- Uses effective communication skills
- Works successfully within a group
- Exhibits positive interpersonal skills

A Knowledgeable Person

- Meets or exceeds academic standards as demonstrated through the Wisconsin Students Assessment System (WSAS), STAR testing, and district and graduation policies through exposure to:

English/Language Arts

World Languages

Information Literacy

Visual & Performing Arts

Vocational Education

Service Learning

Personal Fitness

Science

Social Studies

Technology

Math

A Creative Thinker

- Brings a creative approach to understanding the relationship between past experience & present knowledge
- Accesses, analyzes, & applies information from a variety of resources
- Recognizes & considers multiple viewpoints
- Demonstrates insight & perseverance