

For Immediate Release: August 15, 2014

Raising awareness to the symptoms of gynecologic cancers is a very important mission and could ultimately save women's lives. Three Birmingham organizations — the CanSurvive GYN Cancer Support Group, the Laura Crandall Brown Ovarian Cancer Foundation, and the Norma Livingston Ovarian Cancer Foundation — are partnering to do just that with their "A State of Teal" campaign. The campaign is taking place in September, which is National Gynecologic Cancer Awareness Month.

"A State of Teal" is designed to raise awareness of GYN cancers, the impact of these cancers on Alabamians, and the need for research and improved screening tests. On August 18, 2014, the City of Pelham will issue a proclamation declaring September as GYN Cancer Awareness Month. Present to accept the proclamation will be Jennifer Smiley, who is treasurer of the CanSurvive Support Group and and A State of Teal committee member. The proclamation will be presented at the council meeting which is scheduled to begin at 7:00 p.m. in the Council Chambers at Pelham City Hall, which is located at 3162 Pelham Parkway in Pelham.
