

Assurance of Compliance with Title IX Of the Education Amendments of 1972

Alexander City Schools are committed to providing an equal learning and working environment to all students and employees and does not discriminate on the basis of sex. It is the policy of Alexander City Schools to be in accordance with Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, which provides that:

“no person in the United States shall, on the basis of sex, be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of or be subjected to discrimination under any educational program or activity receiving Federal financial assistance.”

Inquiries concerning this policy may be directed to Amy Ward, Director of Special Education / Title IX Coordinator, Alexander City Schools.

Sincerely,

Amy Ward
Alexander City Schools
375 Lee St.
Alexander City, AL
(256) 234-8600