This Month/Next Month:

It was a bit of a wait with two postponements but our All Saints production of the Wizard of Oz this past weekend was nothing short of AMAZING! We are so proud of our student performers and grateful for Mrs. Karen Jacquot's leadership in collaboration with Mrs. Alicia LeBeau and Mr. Bob Colligan...along with a host of invaluable parent volunteers!

While the delays in the performances may have been inconvenient, they were not without meaning! The Wizard of Oz is a story riddled with life lessons; most with spiritual connections. Celebrating the Easter season by enjoying the performances seems most appropriate.

Learning that our true home is heaven and we are all learning through our life experiences that there is "No place like home!" is central to our mission as a Catholic school. Helping our children to develop critical thinking skills, a compassionate heart for others, and the courage to use their God-given gifts and talents in support of others to overcome hardships is what we strive to do each day at All Saints Catholic School.

Additionally, the lesson of community is so prominent in the story of the Wizard of Oz. Dorothy doesn't go to OZ alone... she invites and accepts the companionship of others who are quite different from herself; each with a perceived deficiency. It is reminiscent of Jesus who formed a community of diverse and perceived deficient apostles and disciples. As a Catholic school community, we are called to welcome and embrace new members recognizing that each of us has deficiencies as well as gifts to offer as we strive to become the people God intends us to be.

Our eighth grade students have their sights set on high school and beyond right now...some have been heard to say, "I can't wait to get out of here!" Much like Dorothy they want to see what lies beyond the rainbow. We hope that as they embark on new adventures, they will feel the prayerful support of the All Saints "family" cheering them on and remember that they are always most welcome to come HOME for a visit!
