Motion #101

It was moved/seconded (COLE/BLUMBERG) to adopt the agenda for Monday, March 26, 2012, with item 9C.4 moved to follow the Consent Calendar. APPROVED 4-0

4. SPECIAL ORDER OF BUSINESS

A. Introduction of New Administrator

Superintendent José Banda introduced Tammie Bernal, Physical Education Program (PEP) Grant Coordinator.

5. SUPERINTENDENT'S UPDATES

Leg. Update

A. Legislative Update - Jackie Filbeck; District Liaison for Assemblyman Chris Norby, 72nd Assembly District

Ms. Filbeck provided an update on current legislation in addition to information regarding a local job fair.

Good News

B. Good News – Superintendent José Banda

The Superintendent thanked Disneyland Resort and DonorsChoose.org, who have partnered to provide CREATE grants for ACSD teachers. These grants provide teachers with funds for materials that support visual and performing arts projects in classrooms. Disneyland Resort provided $102,845 to fund innovative projects.

Clara Barton School will celebrate the completion of its modernization on March 29 with a “thank you” assembly and student-led tours of the school.

Congratulations to Hailey Olave, fourth-grade student at Thomas Jefferson School, for being named an “Every Student Succeeding” winner by Region 17 of the Association of California School Administrators. Haley has overcome limitations of autism through her creativity and artwork.

The ACSD Education Foundation, Success for All staff, and the House of Blues are partnering once again to help feed 400 ACSD students and families for a Spring holiday brunch. Superintendent Banda expressed his appreciation for the partnership of our local businesses to help support our students and families.

Congratulations to our three Teachers of the Year who will represent ACSD in the Orange County Department of Education competition: Bernadette Grzechowiak, Ponderosa School; Morgan Breazeal, Horace Mann School; and Brenda Felling, Melbourne A. Gauer School.

Facilities/Const.
Update

C. Facilities/Construction Update – Superintendent José Banda

Abraham Lincoln School: Roof decks have been poured on the main building, fire proofing is ongoing and the main structural steel installations are near completion. The kindergarten building is watertight and stucco has been applied. The majority of the hangers for the various systems are in place and inspections are ongoing.

James Madison School: The extensive value engineering sessions have been completed. The proposed Guaranteed Maximum Price (GMP) is on the agenda for Board action, and pending Board approval, the notice to proceed could be issued before the end of the week.

Melbourne A. Gauer School: The extensive value engineering sessions have been completed. The proposed GMP is also on the agenda for Board action. Pending Board approval, the notice to proceed could be issued before the end of the week.

Thomas Edison School: The interim housing (IH) site preparations have been completed and delivery of the IH classrooms has begun.

John Marshall School: The Division of the State Architect review is still in progress. The estimated time of approval is June 2012.

Alexander J. Stoddard School: The schematic design and outline for the infrastructure are in progress. The construction/design teams will meet the first week of April.

Budget Update

D. Budget Update – Superintendent José Banda

Superintendent Banda provided an overview of the Second Interim Report and commented on budget challenges should the tax initiative fail in November 2012. The District is working hard to generate revenue, and through a successful attendance incentive program, ACSD’s attendance rate has increased by almost .7 percent, generating an additional $700,000 for the District.

6. PUBLIC SPEAKERS: SPEAKERS ON AGENDA OR NON-AGENDA ITEMS

Visitors

A. Request of Visitors

Kathy Heard, CSEA president and library media assistant, spoke on the potential impact of increased health costs. She also spoke in support of the proposed MedReview audit of pharmacy/prescription charges to the District.
