

Appling Applause Delivers Outstanding Performance

ACHS Show Choir, Appling Applause, recently traveled to Montgomery, Alabama, where they participated in the Capital City Classic Show Choir Competition. Appling Applause presented an outstanding show and was selected from among nineteen show choirs as one of the five to perform for the final round of competition. Director Karen Davis and the ACHS Choral Department are proud to announce Appling Applause was named fourth runner up in the competition. These students represented their school, county, and themselves in a most honorable manner. Congratulations. Applina Applause!
