

CHAPTER 2.00 - SCHOOL BOARD GOVERNANCE AND ORGANIZATION

RESIGNATION OF BOARD MEMBERS

2.10.5

Board members may submit resignations at any time during their term of office. Such resignations are subject to Barbour County Board of Education approval. In the event a Board member chooses to resign, a written statement of resignation should be submitted to the Board as far in advance of the effective date of resignation as possible. Barbour County Board of Education members shall be considered resigned when they permanently establish their residence outside the district they were elected to represent, outside the area served by the Barbour County School System, outside the county, or become an employee of the Board.
