Parents who suspect that their Preschool age child may have special needs can get free help from their local school District's Child Study Team. Brigantine Public School District is organizing a Child Find Campaign to locate and provide services for those children ages 3 to 5 who may have physical, mental, language or emotional difficulties. Information may be obtained on how and where to obtain services for special children, birth to 3 years of age. For information, please call the Brigantine Child Study Team at 609.264.9499.

*Students will not be able to start school without ALL required immunizations. There are no exceptions. (N.J.A.C. 8:57-4.2)
