

Ashley Roberts' second grade class at Riverview Elementary School had so much fun working together to build geometric shapes. The students gained an understanding of vertices, edges, and faces.

