

Riverview Elementary Middle School celebrated Princess movie night Friday, January 20. Students were treated with a free movie, make-up, face painting, and nail painting and concession was sold. It was an enchanted evening for students and teachers alike.

