

Twin Valley High School Essay Winners!

This school year the Levisa River Chapter NSDAR hosted a Daughters of the American Revolution essay contest for fifth through eighth graders. Twenty-two students competed in this contest, all writing some amazing essays. And, four students representing Twin Valley High School were chose in a top three ranking, two resulting in a tie for third place. For the school as a whole, we can say we are very proud of these hard working students! We thank our students for participating and congratulations on a job well done!

First Place: Skylar Vance

Second Place: Madison Witt

Third Place: Hannah Hagerman & Hannah Boyd
