

Twin Valley High School Students Travel to Southwest Virginia Community College!

On Thursday, February 23, 2017, professors from Taiwan and Radford University presented to Twin Valley High School students at the Southwest Virginia Community College campus. TVHS students were excited to learn about the different cultures being presented and gleaned a lot of valuable information from the presentation.

