

Zeke Pike shared a message about choices to middle and high school students at Riverview School. After losing his football career to drug and alcohol addiction, Pike had an eight month prison stay and lost a dear friend before turning his life around and beginning Number 8 Ministries, a faith-based ministry.

