

Regent University

A "regent" is defined as one who represents a king in his absence. For Regent University, a regent is one who represents Christ, our Sovereign, in whatever sphere of life he or she may be called to serve Him.

Notable Honors or Rankings

Regent's academic standards are exceptional—one reason Regent is ranked a Top 10 Best in Online Bachelor's Education by U.S. News & World Report, ranks #1 online for MBA Faculty Credentials & Training, is #4 in Online Programs for Veterans, and is highly ranked overall in online business and graduate education programs. Regent University is also recognized nationally as one of only 22 universities in the U.S. to receive an "A" rating by ACTA.

TOEFL Requirements

Computer: 233
Internet: 90
Paper: 577

Student Population Facts

Regent University has a population of almost 6,000 students (as of Fall 2013), from which 68 countries are represented.

Accreditation

Regent University is accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges, American Bar Association Council of the Section of Legal Education and Admissions to the Bar, American Psychological Association Committee on Accreditation, Commission on Accrediting of the Association of Theological Schools, Teacher Education Accreditation Council, Accreditation Committee, etc.

Regent University

About Regent University

Regent University is one of the nation's leading academic centers for Christian thought and action, with a multitude of graduate and undergraduate programs available worldwide.

Tuition / Room & Board for 2014-2015:

*Tuition $16,748
*Housing & Utilities (9 months) $7,525

 The potential of financial aid awarded through Regent University to international students cannot be guaranteed and should therefore not be expected. An interested international applicant should seek out all possible means of funding for educational expenses.

University Degrees & Programs

Degrees awarded (2012-13)	1,305
Associate's degrees	15
Bachelor's degrees	382
Master's degrees	571
Doctoral degrees	151
First Professional	186

Academic Excellence

Regent University was founded in 1978 and now offers 53 graduate and undergraduate degrees available on campus and online.

Regent University
1000 Regent University
Drive Virginia Beach, VA
23464
Phone: 800-373-5504