Sponsorship Packet

SEPTEMBER 13-15, 2017
HOSTED BY ANDERSON UNIVERSITY
ANDERSON, SOUTH CAROLINA

CGE Provides Global Value

CGE Annual Meetings register more than 200 leaders from 42 member universities, including more than 6,965 faculty, 124,566 students and 4,245 internationals.

Membership represents 23 USA states and 6 nations. Speakers from universities and partners will come share their areas of need and vision from: Myanmar, Cambodia, Indonesia, China, Egypt, Lebanon, Jordan, UK, France, Italy, Lithuania, and Turkey.

Members create impact opportunities across 91 nations with strategically targeted projects, active participation in educational efforts that lead to changed lives, community involvement in service, and national programs linked to nationals who are CGE committed colleagues.

Track sessions and workshops during the 2017 Annual Meeting will highlight: International Student Leadership Conference in the UK, June 2018; updates on new Study Abroad opportunities that include internships; Faculty-led short-term options; Covenant Scholarship Program for overseas student CGE scholars; International Recruiting through AmeriStudy with International and Christian private K-12 schools; and CGE opportunity visits to India, Lithuania, the Czech Republic, Poland, and Ireland.

Our Mission:

The Consortium for Global Education is a non-profit organization that works to promote cooperation and understanding through international education.

CGE serves as a catalyst for universities and colleges, which are endeavoring to establish and maintain strategic overseas programs. This includes recruitment of international students, establishing scholarships and certification programs, and facilitating partnerships among educational organizations around the globe.
