

Author: _____
Date of Original Publication: _____

Provide info. about the period in which the work was written
(literary, historical, philosophical, etc.; at least three facts/key ideas)

Identify the genre & explain how this work fits the genre
("fiction" or "nonfiction" is NOT specific enough)
Genre type:

Explain how it fits the genre:

Identify the setting(s) & explain the significance of each (be specific of particular locations within the literary work)

Provide plot points - use bullets or graphic organizer
(Cover the entire plot with all significant events, from beginning to end – at least 10 key points)

Identify and explain the use and effect of three DIFFERENT literary techniques or devices – include quoted examples from the work with citation (NOT symbolism, metaphors, or motifs—put those on the back)

Technique/Device Type:

Quoted Example:

Explain:

Technique/Device Type:

Quoted Example:

Explain:

Technique/Device Type:

Quoted Example:

Explain:

Characters: Fill in EACH box (only exception is if the literary work has less than 8 characters total)

Character Name	Relationship to Other Characters	Explain purpose/function of character	dynamic (D) or static (S)?

Identify and explain key metaphors (M), symbols (S), and/or motifs (F) in the work [3 total]

Type (circle): M S F

Quoted Example:

Analyze the M/S/F in the quote:

Type (circle): M S F

Quoted Example:

Analyze the M/S/F in the quote:

Type (circle): M S F

Quoted Example:

Analyze the M/S/F in the quote:

Provide and explain at LEAST two themes of the work

(COMPLETE statements that provide a universal message—no use of you/your/we; no commands (“Do not...”); no mentioning of specific characters/events in the theme itself)

Theme:

Quoted Example:

Explain how quote shows the development of the theme:

Theme:

Quoted Example:

Explain how quote shows the development of the theme:

DISCLAIMER: Be original. Excessive similarity between your work and another student’s work is considered academic dishonesty and is grounds for dismissal from the Pre-AP/AP course and/or forfeiting credit for the assignment.