| CASWELL COUNTY SCHOOLS BOARD OF EDUCATION POLICY | INTRODUCTION Overall Control and Supervision | 105 |
|---|--|------------|

The Caswell County Board of Public Education shall have general control and supervision of all matters pertaining to the public schools within the administrative unit and the Board shall enforce North Carolina school law and Federal law, state regulations, and Caswell County Board of Public Education policy. All decision-making authority not specifically reserved for the Board of Public Education or specifically delegated by these policies or by state law or regulation is delegated to the chief administrative officer, the Superintendent of Schools, for administrative decision-making.

This collection of policies explains the official position of the Caswell County Board of Public Education and is public information. These policies apply to all individuals, groups, and organizations under the jurisdiction of the Caswell County Board of Public Education. These adopted policies supersede and make null and void any previously adopted policies. They are not meant to be all-inclusive, and they will be periodically reevaluated and altered where and when necessary. New policies will be added when needed.

Any policy addition or revision will be entered on a separate sheet to replace the old policy and will bear the date of adoption. When a new or revised policy supersedes another, the old policy shall be deleted from the manual. An updated Table of Contents will accompany any deleted or added policies. An updated policy manual shall be kept in each media center and each principal's office in the school system. Each Board of Public Education member, as well as those assigned a policy manual by the Superintendent, shall also keep the policy manual updated as needed. The administration is authorized to implement the policies of the Caswell County Board of Public Education with specific procedures or regulations.

The application of policies adopted by the Board is the responsibility of the Superintendent or designee. All directions for action shall be given to the Superintendent by the Board acting in official meetings. No member of the Board shall individually give orders or directives to the Superintendent or any other school personnel, except as expressly authorized by the Board in official action. Requests for information and materials and suggestions by individual Board members should be channeled through the Superintendent or designee.
