A resignation originated by an employee normally would not prevent reemployment. An individual resigning for personal reasons should submit in writing a letter of resignation to the Superintendent with a copy to the Principal.

If, however, an employee resigns after being informed that his ineffectiveness or unacceptable conduct would result in a recommendation for dismissal or failure to reappoint, such person may not be reemployed by the Board without a written recommendation from the Superintendent.

No teacher may resign without the consent of the Superintendent except upon thirty (30) workdays notice. Provided, however, that giving notice of resignation within thirty (30) workdays preceding the beginning of the school year, without written consent of the Superintendent, shall constitute grounds for revocation of the teacher's certificate for the remainder of that calendar year or school year, in the discretion of the State Board of Education.

The Board may reject a request for termination of a contract if the employee fails to give the Board adequate notice of if release of the employee would create problems that the Board determines to be unreasonable.

Resignations will be accepted on behalf of the Board by the Superintendent or designee.
