HOMEBOUND PROGRAM/SERVICES

• PROGRAM PARAMETERS

Caswell County Schools provides a program of instruction to support school-aged students who are unable to attend classes due to injury or illness. To be eligible for homebound support, students must be or anticipate being absent for an extended period, substantiated by a licensed physician. Homebound is not designed to support students with brief absences of less than 20 consecutive days. The primary purpose is to maintain access to a free and appropriate public education and to ensure access to the curriculum.

• PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

The homebound program provides tutorial/instructional services so that the student can return to school with knowledge and skills to maintain his or her previous level of academic performance. To be eligible for homebound support, students must be enrolled in public schools. Students receiving homebound support will remain enrolled in their base school. Students remain the responsibility of the permanent school of enrollment.

• EXAMPLES OF SITUATIONS THAT COULD ENTITLE STUDENTS TO RECEIVE SERVICES

1. Accident Victims
2. Surgery
3. Extended Illness
4. Pregnancy- The attendance status of pregnant students shall be determined by the student and her physician. Homebound instruction services is made available to pregnant students up to two (2) weeks prior to due date and up to six (6) weeks after delivery. Exceptions to these timelines will be considered only when the student's physician has placed her on "bed rest."
5. Other as determined by medical documentation

• REFERRAL PROCEDURES

General Education: If a parent/guardian anticipates that their child will be absent for more than 20 days due to significant illness, they may initiate a Homebound Services referral. The referral forms may be obtained from school counselors and are also available on the Caswell County Schools Exceptional Children website. The referral packet has three sections to fill out and return. Forms (Pages 4, 5, 6, and 7) need to be submitted to Nelson Showalter (Homebound Coordinator). Occasionally, additional information regarding the student's courses and assignments/testing will be required before the homebound teacher is assigned.

Special Education: Considerations by the IEP team should involve an exceptional children director. The IEP must be amended for homebound services: Upon the receipt of a completed homebound referral packet, the base school initiates and IEP meeting to amend the IEP to appropriately reflect changes necessary to the setting and delivery of special education services.

The following steps should be used to support the homebound referral process:

1. A parent or other person makes a request for homebound services.
2. School level designated personnel provide information and share the homebound forms accordingly.
3. Forms to be submitted by the school: (Pages 4, 5, 6)
 - a. Parent Authorization (pg. 4)
 - b. Physician's Statement (pg. 5)
 - c. School Demographic (pg. 6)
4. The three completed pages should be sent to the attention of Nelson Showalter at: Bartlett Yancey Administrative Building, 319 Main St. E. Yanceyville, NC 27379.
5. The Director of Exceptional Children approves or denies the request. (Decision for Homebound)
6. The principal/designee at each school establishes a homebound instructor to provide service and coordinates the start date once approval is determined.
7. For students with an Individualized Education Program (IEP) or a 504 Plan, the respective teams should be included and the new service schedule should be documented on the plans.

• SERVICES

The amount of instruction available for general education students eligible for homebound services is up to 4 hours a week of homebound services. Determining factors include: the age and grade of the student, the nature of the identified health issues, and the instructional needs determined by courses in which the student is enrolled. Some students require more in-home instructional support than others.

The homebound teacher works with the student and the school to determine what assistance is required and the amount of time needed to help the student maintain academic progress. The length of time out of school may also be a factor influencing the support the student requires. Computer based instruction may be an available option for some students. This alternative can be an effective option for students whose absences exceed at least one grading period. Access to online courses is determined by the school of enrollment and course availability.

Programmatic considerations and options are generally the same for the student receiving special education as general education students. Considerations include the need for specialized instruction required by the student and determined by the individualized education plan. In cases when special education student are determined to require homebound instruction by the IEP team, instructional time is determined by the IEP team and influenced by factors that include: the student's IEP goals, the student's age, and other disability based needs. The actual determination of the amount of weekly instructional hours is determined by the IEP team after due consideration of the above factors.

• CLASSROOM TEACHER

1. Keeps students on class roster.
2. Develops plans, instructions, and reasonable amount of work.
3. Grades student work, answers questions, and assists students.
4. Has assignments on day, time, and place designated by principal.

• HOMEBOUND INSTRUCTOR

1. Works up to four (4) hours per week with students
2. Explains work, answers questions, and assists student.
3. Does not prepare assignments or issue grades.
4. Has access to instructional materials and guides.

REFERRAL FOR HOMEBOUND PARENT/GUARDIAN AUTHORIZATION

(Complete the form below regarding homebound services and return to the school counselor.)

Student Name: _____ DOB: _____

Reason for requesting homebound instruction: _____

- 1. An adult, 18 years of age or older, must be present in the home for the duration of the homebound teacher's visitation. This individual will be required to sign the instructional delivery log documenting the date and time of the visit.
 - 2. Caswell County Schools teachers are guaranteed a safe, healthy and harassment-free instructional environment. A smoke, liquor, and drug free environment is expected in order to establish a positive instructional atmosphere for both the teacher and student. When the teacher is present these conditions must be met or arrangements will be made for instruction to occur at a neutral location, such as the public library.
 - 3. The Homebound teacher will not enter the home when the student or family member has a contagious disease. It is the responsibility of the parent to notify the teacher of any contagious disease.
 - 4. Teachers may refuse to enter homes when pets are loose. Pets are to be constrained to prevent distractions to the instructional environment.
 - 5. Visitors, phone calls, television, radio and other distractions that draw the attention of the student and teacher away from instruction will not be allowed in the area intended for instruction during the homebound teachers' visits.
 - 6. If the parent/guardian or student is not home when the homebound teacher arrives for the scheduled visit, the student will be reported to the school as unexcused for that day. Ten hours of unexcused instructional visits is cause for discontinuation of services. Parents are asked to contact the homebound teacher, in advance of the scheduled visit to excuse the student. Cancellations should be made 24 hours prior to the scheduled visit.
 - 7. The Homebound teacher will, to the extent possible, follow the student's course of student and/ or IEP. Teachers at the base school remain responsible for providing students unit study guides, assignments/materials and test that enable the student to keep up with homebound support, as is possible from the home. In some cases course changes may be required when students are expected to miss extended periods of instruction. Computer-based instruction for secondary level students may be considered by the school as alternatives to existing courses. Grades for all work completed by the student are assigned by the highly qualified teachers leading each course.
 - 8. The student may not be employed or otherwise engaged outside the home, or participate in organized activities outside the home while receiving homebound instruction.

I understand and accept these non-negotiable rules for the delivery of Homebound Instruction. I understand that failure to honor these rules is cause for temporary discontinuation of the services.
