No staff member shall compromise his position by accepting any gift of significant monetary value from individuals or special interest groups within the school community or elsewhere, except as such gifts are expressions of good will from the community for a job done over and beyond the call of duty.

This policy shall not be interpreted as discouraging simple expressions of good will from students, parents/legal guardians/legal custodians or community.

The Board encourages writing letters to staff members to express gratitude and appreciation; as such commendations can become a part of the employee's official personnel file.
