

Internet Access Resources

Companies in Alabama that are offering Internet services for students without home access during this time of COVID-19 school closures. Some of these are offered nationwide, but also listed are some that are only relevant to AL.

First, there are a variety of Internet provider initiatives with discounted monthly rates that low-income families can usually access if their kids qualify for the National School Lunch Program (NSLP). Find out how to apply through an Internet Service Provider.

<https://www.cabletv.com/blog/low-income-internet>

AT&T - <https://about.att.com/pages/COVID-19.html>

TMobile - All current T-Mobile plans with data will be granted free unlimited data for the next 60 days, excluding roaming. T-Mobile and Metro by T-Mobile customers will be given an additional 20GB of mobile hotspot and tethering services for the next 60 days. Lifeline customers will be given an extra 5GB of data per month for the next two months