The Christian County (Kentucky) Board of Education is seeking an individual with the talent, skills, and knowledge to lead our culturally diverse school district with a vision that all students will succeed. This person needs to be accessible and engaged in the community. The successful applicant will have demonstrated the ability to be a good steward of available resources, transparent with all stakeholders, an effective team builder, and the willingness to listen to advice and needs of students, staff, parents, and community members.

Christian County, KY is an agriculturally based community as well as industrial. Located near the recreational oasis of Land Between the Lakes National Recreation Area and just an hour's drive to Nashville, TN; Hopkinsville has a little something to offer everyone. With strong and supportive ties to its local military base, Fort Campbell and its 101st Airborne Division (Air Assault), 5th Special Forces Group and the 160th Special Operations Aviation Regiment.

Christian County Public Schools (CCPS) is one of the largest school districts in Western Kentucky (8,800 students) and the second largest employer in the county (1,200 employees). Our P-12 student populations are reflective of the larger diverse Christian County community, with the district's free/reduced lunch rate at 71%. The district consists of eight elementary schools, two middle schools, and two high schools. The district is home to the Gateway Academy to Innovation and Technology (Career and Technical Center), Alternative School, and a Day Treatment Facility. CCPS also proudly serves many of Fort Campbell's military dependent children.
