Looks Forward
to Second Semester

Happy New Year! Let me express my gratitude and appreciation to each of you for the professionalism and pride you display in your daily work. I know it's difficult to return to school after a break, but as we all know....second semester will fly by quickly. We have much work to do in order to make certain our children get a great education and will receive a chance in life.

The work we do is so important. Our schools provide a safe, loving, educational and supportive environment for nearly 9,000 students. Thank you for your commitment to our students and thank you for enabling our students to become productive adults.

I know you will continue to encourage, motivate, inspire and support our students. Have a productive and happy second semester.

Looks Forward
To A Great
Second Semester

With the New Year comes new hopes and new tasks. The "Nickel Tax" referendum is behind us and the voters have spoken. As a board we represent the taxpayers and we accept their decision. The wonderful thing about public education is that even when things do not go the way we hope, we still have the honorable task of teaching and nurturing our county's children. We remain hopeful our legislators this session will understand state mandates should come with state funding. Keep your head up, be proud of who we are and our mission and have a great second semester!

Chief Administrative Officer
Laura Morris
Discusses
Spring Employee Recruitment

As the New Year begins, the Administrative Services Personnel Department is gearing up to start the recruitment season for new employees.

As we look for new employees, Christian County Public Schools has established Standards of Excellence that helps to guide the hiring of new personnel. The Service Excellence work was done by members of all stakeholder groups. These groups include administrators, teachers, classified employees, and a school board member. Standards of Excellence list expectations that all school employees should strive to reach as we take on the important responsibility of educating our students. Our Certified and Classified Employee of the Year criteria are aligned to these Standards of Excellence. Recruitment takes on many forms from hosting student teachers from several local universities, recruitment fairs, teacher mentoring and advanced software that advertises job openings and opportunities nationwide.

Christian County Public Schools' Standards of Excellence

- Professional—Be effective in your role and interact with others in an honest and transparent manner.
- High Standards—Consistently perform at your personal best and strive for individual and professional growth.
- Accountable—School staff, parents and students know the expectations and are responsible for their actions.
- Equitable— Being consistent in the way we address all individual situations.
- Dedicated—Committed to the ongoing pursuit of excellence.
- Diversified—Placing value on all backgrounds and coming together as one.

Roslynn Bell is CCPS Student of the Month

Our Christian County Public Schools Student of the Month is Roslynn Bell. Roslynn is a fifth grade student at Sinking Fork Elementary School and her Principal Leslie Lancaster says “Roslynn Bell is an excellent role model for her peers not only academically but also in all other areas. Roslynn is wise beyond her years and a mature leader who is helpful, friendly, and involved. As we have observed her this year, we have become more and more impressed with her maturity, disposition, and all-around poise in all situations. Besides being a conscientious student, her social skills are above reproach. We have never heard her say an unkind word. She consistently goes above and beyond in her academics working a grade level above her same age peers. She truly sets a fantastic example for her peers always displaying PANTHER Pride with her work ethic and attitude. Above all, she is respected by her peers and is a great role model for them. Roslynn is the epitome of what we want all Sinking Fork Panthers to aspire to be.” Congratulations Roslynn!

Gateway Academy to Innovation and Technology Honors Business Partner in Education Boyd Family Arena

Business Partner in Education "SHOUT OUT"

Boyd Family Arena

Christian County Public Schools would like to showcase a new business partner for the 19-20 year, Boyd Family Arena! Boyd Family Arena is owned and operated by David and Jessica Boyd, and is located just south of Crofton. The main purpose of the establishment is to board, groom and care for horses. Recently, the Boyds have expanded the business to include riding lessons for most any age, with the inclusion of specialized times for persons with disabilities.

Kylee Knight, work based learner with CCHS class of 2020, stands beside "Shorty", holding a feeding, grooming and medical charting system.

Boyd Family Arena is also the home to approximately 20 goats that are raised, cared for and sometimes later sold. The farm also has its usual friendly barn cats and dogs. Even while operating a new and extremely demanding business, the Boyds have created time to invest in CCPS scholars pursuing hands on, real world, work based learning experiences in the agricultural pathway of animal science.

Kylee explains that the colored markings on each goat represents different stages of veterinarian care.

Local business partners in education are HEROES that help Christian County Schools activate work based learning programs. Jessica and David Boyd understand full circle the value of work based learning as an educational strategy. These unique experiences provide scholars with everyday life employment where development of their technical training, professionalism and employability take place. This year, the Boyds have employed and are mentoring Kylee Knight, a senior at Christian County High School in the agriculture department. The Boyds have provided their time, expertise, mentorship, safety protocols and materialistic resources to influence Kylee in her transition to life after high school.

Thank you Boyd Family Arena! This partnership delivers an extension of learning, beyond the bounds of a book or web page. For further information regarding Boyd Family Arena, please look them up on Facebook.
