

I. Governing Principles

The Coosa County School System is committed to empower all students to develop their full potential through an innovative educational system characterized by a committed staff, challenging curriculum, and collaborative community partnerships.