King Tutankhamen's Tomb 709
Sopris West Six-Minute Solutions

King Tut is probably the best known of the Egyptian pharaohs. He is famous simply for the discovery of his tomb. Following his death more than 3,000 years ago, King Tut's mummy and tomb were laid to rest in (Egypt)’s Valley of the Kings. This valley (was) the burial ground for many of (the) New Kingdom Pharaohs. King Tut's tomb (remained) sealed and buried until its discovery (on) November 22, 1922.

The tomb was discovered by (an) archaeologist named Howard Carter. A rich (man) named Lord Carnarvon hired Howard Carter. (Lord) Carnarvon had bought the right to (dig) in the Valley of the Kings. (He) and Howard Carter had been looking (for) the tomb for five years. Finally, (they) found steps leading to the entrance (to) the tomb. The tomb itself consisted (of) four small rooms, each filled with (golden) treasure. It was obvious that ancient (tomb) robbers had broken into the first (room) in King Tut's tomb. However, over 600 (items) and the burial room had been *(left) untouched. The tomb was filled with (beautiful) objects made of gold, precious stones, *(and) detailed carvings. The most exciting find (was) the burial chamber containing King Tut's (mummy). The mummy was buried in a *(solid) gold coffin. Its head and shoulders *(were) covered with a beautiful golden mask (depicting) the face of King Tut. The (discovery) of King Tut’s tomb was an (exciting) and important find because it was (the) only tomb of an ancient Egyptian *(king) to be found almost completely intact. (Every) item in the tomb was photographed, (measured), and recorded before it was taken (away). It took archaeologists many years to (completely) clear the tomb. King Tut’s treasures *(are) on display in the Museum of (Cairo).
King Tutankhamen’s Tomb 709
Sopris West Six-Minute Solutions

King Tut is probably the best known of the Egyptian pharaohs. He is famous simply for the (knowledge, delightful, discovery) of his tomb. Following his death (more, disappear, smash) than 3,000 years ago, King Tut's mummy (and, him, explode) tomb were laid to rest in (became, trousers, Egypt's) Valley of the Kings. This valley (melodic, was, really) the burial ground for many of (fair, organization, the) New Kingdom Pharoahs. King Tut's tomb (remained, argument, fight) sealed and buried until its discovery (narrow, frowning, on) November 22, 1922.

The tomb was discovered by (an, um, fatally) archaeologist named Howard Carter. A rich (slept, merrily, man) named Lord Carnarvon hired Howard Carter. (Glass, Depend, Lord) Carnarvon had bought the right to (clean, mountain, dig) in the Valley of the Kings. (He, Harmony, Drove) and Howard Carter had been looking (greasy, for, boastfully) the tomb for five years. Finally, (hushed, they, marry) found steps leading to the entrance (to, than, squealing) the tomb. The tomb itself consisted (size, baby, of) four small rooms, each filled with (golden, he, invention) treasure. It was obvious that ancient (tomb, brass, prefer) robbers had broken into the first (ice, crush, room) in King Tut's tomb. However, over 600 (at, uh-huh, items) and the burial room had been (left, got, following) untouched. The tomb was filled with (beautiful, boy, fowl) objects made of gold, precious stones, (hushed, protest, and) detailed carvings. The most exciting find (silk, was, science) the burial chamber containing King Tut's (mummy, built, breathe). The mummy was buried in a (solid, bravely, dusty) gold coffin. Its head and shoulders (soft, try, were) covered with a beautiful golden mask (depicting, ripe, began) the face of King Tut. The (discovery, bake, science) of King Tut's tomb was an (exciting, satisfy, art) and important find because it was (hand, safely, the) only tomb of an ancient Egyptian (king, realize, she) to be found almost completely intact.

(Smoke, Under, Every) item in the tomb was photographed, (voiceless, measured, stupid), and recorded before it was taken (hilarious, away, condition). It took archaeologists many years to (join, completely, price) clear the tomb. King Tut's treasures (are, sold, blush) on display in the Museum of (carefully, helpless, Cairo).