The best stories usually begin in real life. For misfits Tru and Nelle, life in a small Southern town can lack the mystery and flair of their beloved detective novels, and so they go looking for a mystery of their own. Their adventures lead them to trouble, and ultimately a friendship that would last into adulthood. Join us as we read Greg Neri's Tru & Nelle, a novel based on the childhood friendship of our own local writers, Truman Capote and Nelle Harper Lee. We will begin with an introductory session on Tuesday, June 14, at the ASCC Library. Students will receive a copy of Tru & Nelle and will then read the book over the following month. On Tuesday, July 12, we will meet again at the Monroe County Museum where we will discuss the book and learn more about the real life Tru and Nelle. Camp includes copies of Tru & Nelle and To Kill a Mockingbird. This program is limited to 20 students.
