One-Step Inequalities – Journal Prompts

Think about inverse operations as operations that “undo” each other. Write about everyday things that “undo” each other, such as accelerator and brake pedals or locking and unlocking a door.