students
mathematically
proficient
problem
arguments
using
make
might
use
reasoning
tools
solve
solution
analyze
relationships
objects
results
grades
conjectures
later
solving
see
quantities
graphs
identify calculator
explore
look
context
data
appropriate
apply
example
sense
school mathematical
situation
problems
concrete
attending
consider
ask
change
abstract
mathematics
situations
conclusions
draw
evaluate repeating
others
able making
elementary
diagrams
meaning
try
high
line
involved
geometric
repeated
symbols
strategically
structure
process
complicated
geometry
definitions
correspondences
models
points
clarify
notice
express
expressions
compare
regularity
middle assumptions
understand
correct
whether different
may
model
describe
two
referents
algebraic
shapes
calculations
general
constructs
explain
life
reason
argument
approaches
know
three
slope
answers
grade
tables
cases
seven
units
graphing
important
order
check
precision
continually
ability
communicate
older
insight
quantitative
need
plan
plausible
student
recognize
also
equation
x2