

General Study Team Work Teacher Checklist

Start promptly. Teams get organized quickly, quietly, and tightly so that students can begin working right away.

Peer support. Team members consult each other before consulting you.

Assignments. All students should attempt to do the assignment each day.

Respond to team. You address your responses to the whole team, not just the individual who voices the question.

Circulate. You visit all teams regularly, not just those with raised hands.