3:00 Family Prayers

Pastor: We pray for Jesus' Church and for all people according to their needs.

Gracious Lord, shine Your light of mercy and grace into our rebellious hearts, so that we would know the fullness of Your forgiveness, life, and peace. Lord, in Your mercy,

People: hear our prayer.

Pastor: Healing Lord, shine Your light of peace and healing to all who seek relief, for the sick and dying, for those troubled physically, spiritually, emotionally, and mentally, and for the grieving and the dying, that Your comfort be known. Be with all medical personnel as they treat this current pandemic. Give them comfort and peace. Keep them and keep us healthy so that we can live our lives in greater devotion to You. Lord, in Your mercy,

People: hear our prayer.

Pastor: Lord of all nations, shine Your light to all places in this world and to the leaders of cities, states, and countries, that Your light guide and direct them so that we may live in peace and justice. Give courage and diligence to all who work to defend liberties and life, and to those who speak for those who cannot speak for themselves. Lord, in Your mercy,

People: hear our prayer.

Pastor: Lord of the Church, shine Your light upon all You have enabled to speak and proclaim Your Word. Be with our congregation, that we remain united in truth, love, faith, and service. Give courage to live as Your witnesses, that many who remain in darkness rejoice in the light of truth. Lord, in Your mercy,

People: hear our prayer.

1:00 Opening Remarks

The case before you this morning, ladies and gentlemen of the jury, is that of Barabbas. As you know, Barabbas is accused of insurrection and murder. When Jesus was on trial before Pilate. Barabbas, this loathsome and contemptible barbarian, was granted his freedom rather than Jesus, the innocent Son of God. As a result, Pilate ordered Jesus' execution. I know that you will come to the obvious conclusion this man on trial here today should be convicted.

All rise! Court is now in session!

3:00 Reading - Matthew 27:11-26

p. 834

Pastor Jeff: Matthew 27:11 Now Jesus stood before the governor, and the governor asked him, "Are you the King of the Jews?" Jesus said, "You have said so." 12 But when he was accused by the chief priests and elders, he gave no answer. 13 Then Pilate said to him, "Do you not hear how many things they testify against you?" 14 But he gave him no answer, not even to a single charge, so that the governor was greatly amazed. 15 Now at the feast the governor was accustomed to release for the crowd any one prisoner whom they wanted. 16 And they had then a notorious prisoner called Barabbas.

Pastor Seth and Cong.: And among the rebels in prison, who had committed murder in the insurrection, there was a man called Barabbas. (Mark 15:7)

Pastor Jeff: 17 So when they had gathered, Pilate said to them, "Whom do you want me to release for you: Barabbas, or Jesus who is called Christ?"

Pastor Seth and Cong.: And among the rebels in prison, who had committed murder in the insurrection, there was a man called Barabbas. (Mark 15:7)

Pastor Jeff: 18 For he knew that it was out of envy that they had delivered him up. 19 Besides, while he was sitting on the judgment seat, his wife sent word to him, "Have nothing to do with that righteous man, for I have suffered much because of him today in a dream." 20 Now the chief priests and the elders persuaded the crowd to ask for Barabbas and destroy Jesus. 21 The governor again said to them, "Which of the two do you want me to release for you?" And they said, "Barabbas."

Pastor Seth and Cong.: And among the rebels in prison, who had committed murder in the insurrection, there was a man called Barabbas. (Mark 15:7)

Pastor Jeff: 22 Pilate said to them, "Then what shall I do with Jesus who is called Christ?" They all said, "Let him be crucified!" 23 And he said, "Why, what evil has he done?" But they shouted all the more, "Let him be crucified!" 24 So when Pilate saw that he was gaining nothing, but rather that a riot was beginning, he took water and washed his hands before the crowd, saying, "I am innocent of this man's blood; see to it yourselves." 25 And all the people answered, "His blood be on us and on our children!" 26 Then he released for them Barabbas, and having
