Marilyn Batterman was a faithful attendee at the Monday Morning Bible Study. She served as a small group leader and was a regular contributor to the large group discussions. The women of that study were blessed by her love for Jesus and His Word, as she often shared practical insights and wisdom from her walk of faith. Marilyn was also a wonderful servant to her husband, her four children (and their spouses), and her grandchildren. We thank God for this woman of faith.

Deb Burma has a passion for sharing Christ's redeeming love in a creative, engaging style, touching the hearts of women, meeting them in the moments of their everyday lives, and engaging them in God's Word. She travels extensively as a leader and guest speaker for women's retreats, conferences, and other ministry events.

Deb Burma

Deb is a graduate of the University of Texas at Dallas. She has directed women's, children's, and family ministries in multiple churches across the Midwest, and she has received additional training with courses in writing, speaking, and doctrine through Concordia Publishing House (CPH), Concordia Seminary, and the Women's Leadership Institute (WLI), under the direction of noted authors, editors, and theologians.

She has spoken for Lutheran Hour Ministries at both national and regional conferences and for the Lutheran Women's Missionary League (LWML) as keynote speaker for the national convention and several district conventions. She has led workshops and sectionals for Best Practices for Ministry (BPM) conferences, Concordia University System's Beautiful Feet conference, the Nebraska District LEA conference, and WLI's national conferences. Her ministry travels have taken her to twenty-five states and Canada and also led her down the street to her home church!

Deb writes women's Bible studies, Christian-living books, retreat kits, and devotionals, all published by CPH. Her work has appeared in several periodicals, such as the Lutheran Woman's Quarterly and Today's Christian Living. She is a contributor to the CPH blog, The Word Endures, and writes devotions for her personal blog, Fragrant Offerings (<http://debburma.blogspot.com/>). Deb was born and raised on a ranch in western South Dakota. She and her family have shared adventures residing in Texas, Iowa, Missouri, and Wisconsin and now live in Columbus, Nebraska, where Deb's husband, Cory, serves as pastor at Peace Lutheran Church. They're blessed with three children, Chris, Courtney, and Cameron, and a new son-in-law, Aaron.
