

Gadsden County School Board Honors Students and Teachers for Demonstrating Excellence

During a special presentation at the Tuesday, April 26, 2016 School Board meeting, four teachers and a host of students were recognized for their commitment to excellence and dedication to building a brighter future.

High Impact Teachers

Gadsden County educators Sandra Joseph (Greensboro Elementary School), Sharita Baker (St. John Elementary School), Shonda Pruitt (Stewart Street Elementary School), and Breshaun Chambers (Havana Magnet School) were acknowledged for their work as High Impact Teachers. Year after year, these teachers have exhibited the unique ability to motivate and move even the most fragile student towards high achievement. (Not pictured: Lela McCoy and Shanterria Robinson)

Science Fair

The 2015-2016 Science Fair was a contest fueled by innovation and creativity. While all the projects submitted this year were noteworthy, the following students emerged as Gadsden's top three: Anthony Diaz (1st place) of East Gadsden High School, Jada Lindsey (2nd place) of East Gadsden High School, and Donald Woods (3rd Place) of James A. Shanks Middle School. (Not pictured: Anthony Diaz).

History Fair

Gadsden is wishing nearly 20 of its students good luck as they voyage to the 2015-2016 Florida History Fair. With projects ranging from documentaries to elaborative exhibits, the school board is confident these scholars will clinch a top spot at the state competition.
