

The School Board of Gadsden County

Bylaws & Policies

Unless a specific policy has been amended and the date of the policy was revised is noted at the bottom of that policy, the bylaws and policies of The School Board of Gadsden County were adopted on June 25, 2013, and were in effect beginning June 26, 2013.

1231 - OUTSIDE ACTIVITIES OF ADMINISTRATORS

Administrative staff members should avoid situations in which their personal interests, activities, and associations conflict with the interests of the District. If such situations threaten an administrator's effectiveness within the School System, the Superintendent and/or School Board shall evaluate the impact of such interest, activity, or association upon the administrator's responsibilities.

Administrators may not dedicate work time to an outside interest, activity, or association.

Administrators shall not use school time to solicit or accept customers for private enterprises.

Administrators may not engage in business transactions on behalf of private enterprises in which s/he may profit by virtue of his/her official position or authority or benefit financially from confidential information that the employee has obtained or may obtain by reason of his/her position or authority.

Pursuant to State law and Board Policy 1232, administrators shall not participate in any political campaign for an elective office while on duty. Furthermore, administrators shall not authorize the expenditure of public funds for a political advertisement or electioneering communication concerning an issue, referendum, or amendment, including any State question, that are subject to a vote of the electors, unless the electioneering communication is limited to factual information.

Pursuant to F.S. 106.011, "electioneering communication" shall mean any communication that is publicly distributed by a television station, radio station, cable television station, satellite system, newspaper, magazine, direct mail, or telephone. In order to qualify as an electioneering communication, the communication must also be characterized by the following:

- A. refers to or depicts a clearly identified candidate for office without expressly advocating the election or defeat of a candidate, but is susceptible to no reasonable interpretation other than an appeal or against a specific candidate;
- B. is made within thirty (30) days before a primary or special primary election or sixty (60) days before any other election for the office sought by the candidate; and
- C. is targeted to the relevant electorate in the geographic area the candidate would represent if elected.

The constitutional right to express political and other opinions as citizens is reserved to all employees.

Administrators should refrain from expressions that disrupt the efficient operation of the school and/or interfere with the maintenance of discipline by school officials.
