

Gateway Community Action Partnership

for the

Head Start Early Education Center Building-Atlantic City, NJ

Request for Qualifications

--Supplemental Clarification #1 regarding the Request for Qualifications document (Dated: 4-28-15)

1.) With regard to the Prospective Bidder's Contractor's License(s):

All General Contractors should provide a valid Contractors License from the City of Atlantic City, together with any and all other building related contractors licenses, such as a State Public Works Certification from the NJ Dept. of Labor & Workforce Development, Etc.

2.) Regarding the affidavit of Employee Screening requirement:

All General Contractors need to represent that they will provide a formal affidavit (in a customarily utilized and reasonable presented format) that their firm and all subcontractor, vendors and suppliers engaged and working on the Gateway Community Action Partnership project in Atlantic City, New Jersey will conduct and document regular employee screening and background history verifications.

Gateway Community Action Partnership

for the

Head Start Early Education Center Building-Atlantic City, NJ

Request for Qualifications

--Supplemental Clarification #2 regarding the Request for Qualifications document (Dated: 4-30-15)

1.) With regard to the Prospective Bidder's corporate status and authorization to bind:

All General Contractors should provide documentation in support and clarification of their formal, legal business status [i.e.: Professional Corporation (PA), Limited Partnership (LP), Limited Liability Company (LLC), etc.]. In addition, all General Contractors should provide a certified copy of a resolution or similar formal legal documentation authorizing the defined business entity with the full and completed authority to bind the business entity with regard to the anticipated bid submission details and documentation.