

Where do I register my child?

Your child can be registered at the school in the district where you are currently living. The secretary at that school can give you all needed forms.