PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE

CORRESPONDENCE

Letter received from the administrators.

BUDGET WORKSHOP – Attached reports on the budget and class sizes and schedules were discussed.

Further information clarifying the high school schedule was requested.

PUBLIC/STUDENT COMMENTS

Toni Springer, Parent, PTSA President, Lake Luzerne: Requested clarification on the 3:05 bus run. (The bus runs are currently remaining in the budget, this is subject to change after further review). Toni questioned the possibility of advertizing on the buses. Expressed concern over the accelerated programs discussed by the board.

Bill Cartier, Community Member, Hadley: Questioned the Board President.

Diane Waite, Parent, Employee, CSEA President, Hadley: Discussed the accelerated classes. Expressed that the CSEA employees morale is low due to frustration with lack of communications.

Sonja Harris, Parent, Employee: Lake Luzerne: Thanked Mr. Moulton. Expressed concern over the lack of coverage for the school nurse in the PK-2/HS building.

Colleen DeMarsh, Community Member, Hadley: Thanked the board for their commitment to students. Expressed concern over the rising cost of health insurance. As a member of the Saratoga County Youth Recreation Program Committee, she informed the board that Saratoga County has cut the funding for the HL Fun in the Sun Program.

EXECUTIVE/ADJOURNMENT

Motion by Mr. Moulton to enter into executive session at 8:10 pm for the purpose of an update on the school break-in at 8:10 pm followed by immediate adjournment.
