

Inference Cards

While we roared down the tracks, we could feel the bounce and sway of the car. The seats were not very comfortable and the people around me were talking. I closed my eyes and the noises got louder.

1. What can you infer from this?
2. What words helped you to infer?
3. What do you know in your head that helped you to infer?

1.

Inference Cards

Carol dribbled down the court and then passed the ball to Ann.

1. What can you infer from this?
2. What words helped you to infer?
3. What do you know in your head that helped you to infer?

2.

Inference Cards

With clippers in one hand and scissors in the other, Chris was ready to begin the task. He put a cape over the small child.

1. What can you infer from this?
2. What words helped you to infer?
3. What do you know in your head that helped you to infer?

3.

Inference Cards

In the morning, we noticed that the trees were uprooted and homes were missing their rooftops

1. What can you infer from this?
2. What words helped you to infer?
3. What do you know in your head that helped you to infer?

4.

Inference Cards

"Wow!" said Kim. "That was a pretty one!" All the people were looking at the dark sky. "There goes another one!" said Mom. "It lights up the sky!" When the show was over, the tired children went home and went to bed.

1. What can you infer from this?
2. What words helped you to infer?
3. What do you know in your head that helped you to infer?

5.

Inference Cards

The boys poked holes in the lids of the jars. They went outside to look around the yard. "There's one!" said Bobby. "Now let's find one for you!"

1. What can you infer from this?
2. What words helped you to infer?
3. What do you know in your head that helped you to infer?

6.

Inference Cards

The sun was very hot. Katie cried as ice cream dripped down her arm. She had spent her own quarter for that ice cream cone.

1. What can you infer from this?
2. What words helped you to infer?
3. What do you know in your head that helped you to infer?

7.

Inference Cards

The boys and girls were very sad. Frosty was gone and just a pool of water was left under his hat! Frosty had told them he would be back next year, but they still missed him very much.

1. What can you infer from this?
2. What words helped you to infer?
3. What do you know in your head that helped you to infer?

8.

Inference Cards

Mom gave Matt and Josh lunch money and walked them to the bus. When the bus came they got on with all the other children and waved goodbye to Mom.

1. What can you infer from this?
2. What words helped you to infer?
3. What do you know in your head that helped you to infer?

9.

Inference Cards

The bunny hopped up to the door of the little house. He rang the doorbell. All the other animals were inside. When the turtle opened the door, all of the bunny's friends yelled, "Surprise!"

1. What can you infer from this?
2. What words helped you to infer?
3. What do you know in your head that helped you to infer?

10

Inference Cards

T.J. went to look in the cage. There was his new pet, Hopper. The carrot T.J. had put in the cage was gone! "I guess hopper was hungry," he said!

1. What can you infer from this?
2. What words helped you to infer?
3. What do you know in your head that helped you to infer?

11.

Inference Cards

The little girl went into the house. No one was home. She sat in the chairs, she ate the porridge, and she fell asleep! When the bears came home, the little bear started to cry!

1. What can you infer from this?
2. What words helped you to infer?
3. What do you know in your head that helped you to infer?

12.

Inference Cards

Ray always carried his flute with him. He shined it every night and was very careful with it. He didn't want anything to happen to it.

1. What can you infer from this?
2. What words helped you to infer?
3. What do you know in your head that helped you to infer?

13.

Inference Cards

After Sarah broke the trophy, her father turned and walked away without saying anything.

1. What can you infer from this?
2. What words helped you to infer?
3. What do you know in your head that helped you to infer?

14.

Inference Cards

"It's both of us or nothing!" Susan told the other little girl. Susan wanted Lauren to be able to play too.

1. What can you infer from this?
2. What words helped you to infer?
3. What do you know in your head that helped you to infer?

15.

Inference Cards

Grandma's mouth dropped open. Her hands flew to her face.

1. What can you infer from this?
2. What words helped you to infer?
3. What do you know in your head that helped you to infer?

16.

Inference Cards

I see bubbles rising. I hear my own breathing. There are fish swimming above me. I feel the seaweed swaying.

1. What can you infer from this?
2. What words helped you to infer?
3. What do you know in your head that helped you to infer?

17.

Inference Cards

I hear screaming. My stomach feels funny. Can you see my hair blowing? I'm feeling excited. There is a thick metal bar across my lap.

1. What can you infer from this?
2. What words helped you to infer?
3. What do you know in your head that helped you to infer?

18.

Inference Cards

It's so dark in here. I pull the blanket to my face. I'm so nervous. If I could only have my light on, I'd feel so much better. Someone will come and kiss me soon.

1. What can you infer from this?
2. What words helped you to infer?
3. What do you know in your head that helped you to infer?

19.

Inference Cards

I hear a loud "thwack" as the ball flies high in the air. The crowd roars with excitement and I run fast before the ball is brought back.

1. What can you infer from this?
2. What words helped you to infer?
3. What do you know in your head that helped you to infer?

20.