

Fact or Opinion?

Created
by Jessica Tobin

Teacher Directions:

- Print out game.
- Laminate sentence strips and Fact/Opinion game boards.
- Cut out each sentence strip individually.
- Allow students to play during Reading Stations or a smaller group activity. They can work as partners or have an individual copy for the amount of students in that group.
- Ask students to record their answers on the recording sheet after they finish sorting.

Fact:

a true piece of information about something

Opinion:

A belief based on your own thoughts and feelings

The ocean is filled with water.	I like the ocean.	There are thousands of different types of animals in the ocean.
The ocean is more fun than the park.	You can find seashells at the ocean.	The ocean would be a really fun place to visit.
Two oceans that touch our country are the Pacific Ocean and the Atlantic Ocean.	The ocean is filled with salt water.	The ocean is pretty.
The majority of the world is made up of water.	Surfing is the most fun activity to do at the ocean.	A seahorse can be found in the ocean.
Sharks are the coolest animals in the ocean.	Fish live in the ocean.	The ocean is a big, scary place.
People can swim in the ocean.	Boats sail in the ocean.	The ocean is better than a lake.
There is sand on the coasts of the ocean.	Building sandcastles is one of the best things to do at the ocean.	There are waves in the ocean.

Name: _____

Write down five facts and five opinions about the ocean from the game.

Facts

Opinions

Thanks!

Check out my links:

View My Products on:
 TEACHERS pay TEACHERS
an open marketplace for educators

Graphics Used:

