

Name all the characters in the book.

Write six facts
from the book.

When does the
story take place?

How does the
story end?

From what you
read in the story,
what does the
main character
look like?

Using facts from
the story,
describe the
setting of the story.

Draw the characters from
the book.

Write a summary
of the story.

Tell about the
story using your
own words.

How did the main
character feel at
the beginning of
the story?

How did the main character feel at the end of the story?

Think of a main event in the story. Why did it happen?

Explain why the
story has the title
it does.

Draw a picture
of the main
event in the story.

Pick an illustration or picture in the story.

- * Tell about what happened before the picture.
- * Tell about what is happening in the picture.
- * Tell about what happened after the illustration or picture.

What would you do
if you could go to
the place where
the main character
lives?

Select any of the people
in the story and think of some of the things each would do if he/she came to your school during reading.

Think of a situation that occurred to a person in your story and decide whether you would have done the same thing as he/she did, or something different.

Write what you would have done.

Give some examples of people who have had the same problems or have done the same kind of thing as the people in the story.

What would the
main character do
if he/she came to
your house?

What would your mother do if she
were in the story?

If you had to cook a meal for the character in the story, what kind of food would you prepare and why?

What part of the story was the funniest, or the most exciting or saddest?

Tell what happened in the story that couldn't happen in real life?

Some things in the story were true, and some were only the opinion of someone. List the things that were true.

Organize the story into parts and think of a title for each of the parts.

What could you do that would be just like what the person in the story did?

Find five words in the story that begin with the same sound. List them.

Name 2 things from the story that happened outdoors or indoors in the story.

List at least 5 compound words from the story.

List 5 words that have prefixes or
suffixes and write
the base words for
each.

Rewrite the story
from another point
of view.
(Multiple perspective)

Use your imagination to draw a picture about the story. Then, add
one more thing of your own that was not in
the story.

Write another ending
to the story that is different than the
one the author
wrote.

Write a poem
about the story.

Pretend you are the main character in the story. Write a diary about what you were doing each day of the story.

Rewrite the story briefly, but change something or someone in it.

(for example: substitute a gorilla for the wolf in The Three Little Pigs.)

Write 5 new titles
for the story that
would give a good
idea of what the story is about.

Was the main character in the story good or bad, and why?

Would you recommend or not recommend the story to a friend? Why?

Compare 2 characters in the story. Tell which one you judge to be better and why?

Was the story worth the time it took to read?
Why?

If you had the opportunity to go to where the story takes place, would you want to go? Why or why not?

Which of characters would you like to go to dinner with? Why?

Could this story
have really happened? Why or why not?

