

Character Traits

Jill was always telling stories to her friends.

- A. quiet
- B. dreamy
- C. talkative

Character Traits

Sheridan believed the kids when they told her the house was haunted.

- A. thoughtful
- B. gullible
- C. witty

Character Traits

Grace left her homework and assignment notebook in the hall after school.

- A. forgetful
- B. fearful
- C. confused

Character Traits

Calvin shared his allowance with his cousins and wouldn't let them pay him back.

- A. generous
- B. thoughtless
- C. intimidating

Character Traits

When Jackie's grandma was sick, Miss Nelson gave her another day to do her homework.

- A. stubborn
- B. understanding
- C. tough

Character Traits

Without a second thought, the mother gave her coat to her shivering child.

- A. selfless
- B. honest
- C. evil

Character Traits

Justin's voice could be heard in the other room as he bossed the younger children around.

- A. obnoxious
- B. trusty
- C. touchy

Character Traits

Karle refused to admit that she was wrong, even though it was clear she had made a mistake.

- A. stubborn
- B. trusting
- C. neat

Character Traits

Ann carefully set the butterfly on the flower so it could fly away.

- A. forgetful
- B. lazy
- C. gentle

Character Traits

Meghan couldn't keep from peeking under the blanket, even though the magician told her not to look.

- A. timid
- B. dull
- C. curious

Character Traits

Sam used her little brother's colored pencils to finish her map because she forgot her colored pencils at school.

- A. messy
- B. wild
- C. resourceful

Character Traits

Spencer knew how to smile at the teachers and get his way.

- A. gloomy
- B. charming
- C. confused

Character Traits

Bill told everyone about his touchdown the next day, until they were sick of hearing about it.

- A. stingy
- B. demanding
- C. boastful

Character Traits

After Kate received good grades on her report card, she rushed home to show her father.

- A. greedy
- B. proud
- C. cruel

Character Traits

The man in the house on the end of the street always wore a frown on his face and was rarely seen during the daytime.

- A. conceited
- B. dark
- C. leader

Character Traits

Alex always put his corrected papers in the right hand pocket of his folder, and he kept his homework to be completed in the left pocket.

- A. organized
- B. patient
- C. outspoken

Character Traits

Lindsay shouted at the others in anger when they didn't follow her directions.

- A. neat
- B. unfriendly
- C. carefree

Character Traits

Amanda made faces at her little cousin until her cousin giggled.

- A. scared
- B. vengeful
- C. silly

Character Traits

Jennifer ran through the tall grass in the field enjoying the lazy, summer day.

- A. carefree
- B. sneaky
- C. cautious

Character Traits

When the teacher asked who had really read the chapter for homework, Nick admitted he hadn't.

- A. patient
- B. loyal
- C. honest

Character Traits

Harry snuck into the classroom, switched all the desks around, and put shaving cream on the chairs.

- A. joyful
- B. mischievous
- C. helpful

Character Traits

Realizing the young girl couldn't swim, the onlooker dove into the cold, dark water to save her.

- A. brave
- B. pride
- C. deceitful

Character Traits

The teenager realized no one was home in the house so he snuck inside and helped himself to some electronics.

- A. easygoing
- B. shy
- C. dishonest

Character Traits

Without complaining, Dad spent hours trying to teach my little brother how to ride a bike without training wheels.

- A. greedy
- B. honest
- C. patient

Character Traits

When Max thought his pet turtle was sick because he wasn't eating his food, he made an appointment with the vet.

- A. modesty
- B. responsible
- C. cruelty

Character Traits

Not wanting anything out of place, Tracy carefully places her things back in the drawers.

- A. quiet
- B. neat
- C. humorous

Character Traits

Philip has a notebook where he keeps all his ideas of what he would like to invent one day.

- A. simple-minded
- B. imaginative
- C. courageous

Character Traits

Ryan listened carefully to his aunt as she explained why it wouldn't be a good idea to go ice skating.

- A. reasonable
- B. dull
- C. clever

Character Traits

Mom asked Cody to show her his grades, but he hid his poorly done papers in his room.

- A. dishonesty
- B. honesty
- C. loyalty

Character Traits

Instead of focusing on what goes wrong, Cathy likes to laugh at the little things and look at the brighter side of life.

- A. independent
- B. light-hearted
- C. energetic

Character Traits

It wasn't enough for Chris to just play with his toys; he always took them apart to see how they worked.

- A. curious
- B. dishonest
- C. joyful

Character Traits

Frank was afraid to tell his friends he didn't want to see the movie they were excited about watching.

- A. cowardice
- B. selfless
- C. cruelty

Character Traits

The night before her birthday, Sheila begged her parents to let her open just one present.

- A. jolly
- B. impatience
- C. trusting

Character Traits

If you asked her to, Marie would skip lunch and give her money to feed someone else who didn't have enough.

- A. dishonest
- B. cruel
- C. caring

Character Traits

Realizing his son had not gotten out of the burning building, the father ran back inside.

- A. intelligent
- B. easygoing
- C. selfless

Character Traits

Tara could see her neighbor was struggling, so she shoveled the snow off the driveway for her.

- A. kindness
- B. honesty
- C. evil

Character Traits

The teacher rarely saw Matt smile, and he rarely joked around with other children.

- A. neat
- B. careless
- C. serious

Character Traits

If you say up, Johnny will say down; if you say yes, Johnny will say no.

- A. thoughtful
- B. creative
- C. disagreeable