

I Choose to Reflect Excellence by. . .

- Using my leadership skills to guide continual improvements that will lead to increased academic achievement
- Promoting a learning community that radiates trust, respect, teamwork, and integrity
- Coaching and empowering teachers through my instructional skills in order to obtain the best possible return on investment in our students
- Encouraging and supporting teachers in their efforts to change the hearts of those they teach and instill a passion for learning
- Making decisions that are in the best interest of students and committing to the ongoing use of data to bolster and advance student learning
- Holding myself accountable for the successes realized by all students and teachers in our learning community

